

Apprendre le français à iLP, Montpellier

FRENCH AND EXAM PREPARATION

N° of lessons: 30 lessons of 45 minutes

Type of course: • 20 lessons standard course in the morning

• + 10 lessons in mini-groups of 5 - 8 persons. Three sessions of 2:30 hours in the afternoon

Levels: A1 to C2

Course starting: Every Monday. Beginners on first Monday of the month under request

N° participants : Standard course : 12

Afternoon course: 5 - 8

Objectives: All French courses at ILP prepare for the DELF-DALF French proficiency tests. Focus on the learning of grammar structures, vocabulary, improving of listening comprehension skills and written and spoken communication skills.

In the afternoons the emphasis is centred on training for the written and oral tests in test conditions using books of past papers and other specific documents

First day of course organization:

Students take a written and spoken test prior to beginning their training so that they may follow the course that is best suited to their proficiency. Information meeting on the first morning either.

Teaching method: Studied skills:

· Grammar structures and vocabulary

Written and spoken comprehension

• Written and spoken production

• French culture and civilisations

Grammar and phrase structure are addressed through role-plays, games, talks and other practical exercises requiring an active participation on behalf of the learners. Due to the small number of participants ion each course, students are given plenty encouragement to practice their communication skills and share their views. Various materials are used including audio equipment, TV, Internet, songs, literature excerpts, advertisements, press articles, cartoons...

Certification

At the end of your stay at the school, ILP will issue a course certificate indicating the type and duration of the course you followed, as well as the CEF (Common European Framework) level reached.